

VOCABULARY

The following sentences from Flora and Ulysses: The Illuminated Adventures are each missing a key vocabulary word. At the bottom of the activity is a list of the missing words. Find the word that fits the sentence. Then on the back or on a separate piece of paper, write a new sentence using that word or give the definition of the word.

1. Who can say what astonishments are hidden inside the most _____ being? (page 19)
2. "A _____ is someone with special powers, and he uses those powers to fight the forces of darkness and evil." (page 33)
3. "I've come to check and see if what I think happened yesterday actually happened, or if I'm the victim of an extended _____." (page 48)
4. "I prefer to be called William Spiver. It distinguishes me from the _____ of Williams in the world." (page 54)
5. "Wait a minute," said William Spiver. "Are you _____ that the squirrel typed those words?" (page 60)
6. Holy _____ occurrences! (page 75)
7. "Don't worry," said Flora. "You're a superhero. This _____ will be stopped!" (page 77)
8. "I'm engaging in _____. It seems as if the glasses have been glued to my head." (page 81)
9. The whole of the Giant Do-Nut became _____ calm. (page 105)
10. The Criminal Element said that sometimes it was wise to put criminals on the defensive by making "_____ or blatantly untrue comments." (page 106)

WORDS TO MATCH

hallucination	malfesance	mundane	preternaturally	superhero
hyperbole	multiplicity	positing	slandorous	unanticipated

